

ON THE MOVE -

ARCHAEOLOGIES OF HUMAN MOBILITY AND MIGRATION

Workshop organized within the framework of the program

“LMU - UCB Research in the Humanities”

Munich, June 9-10

Venue: Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität München

Institut für Klassische Archäologie

Katharina-von-Bora-Str. 10, rooms 204-206

Friday, June 9

Theoretical introduction

9 am: Benjamin Porter and Caroline von Nicolai - Introduction to the workshop

9.30 am: (20' + 10' discussion): Ruth Tringham - Walking to nowhere: European Neolithic migrations, mobility and movement

Isotope and aDNA analyses of skeletal remains as indicators of mobility

10 am: Philipp Stockhammer - Patterns of Mobility in Late Neolithic and Early Bronze Age Central Europe: a case study from the Lech valley south of Augsburg

10.30 am: Coffee break

11 am: Julia Budka - Across ancient borders and cultures: Mobility of Egyptian officials in New Kingdom Nubia

11.30 am: Carola Metzner-Nebelsick - Mobility and cultural exchange in the eastern Alps and adjacent areas during the Urnfield Period (13th-9th c. B.C.) - a transdisciplinary case study within the DFG-Research Group FOR 1670 'Transalpine Mobility and Cultural Transfer'.

12 am: Discussion

12.30 am: Lunch break

Changes in material culture as a proxy for mobility, cultural influence and contacts

2 pm: Simone Mühl - Pots and People? Tracing mobility in the western Zagros mountain environment in the 3rd and 2nd millennium BC

2.30 pm: Michael Roaf - The Persian migration into Fars

3 pm: Coffee break

3.30 pm: Salvatore Ortisi - Mobility and migration in the frontier provinces of the Roman Empire

4 pm: Mélanie Flossmann-Schütze - Aspects of mobility in animal cults of Late period and Greco-roman Egypt: a case study on the religious association at Tuna el-Gebel, Middle Egypt

4.30 pm: Discussion

7 pm: dinner

Saturday, June 10

Network approaches and GIS

9 am: Lisa Maher - Hunter-gatherer strategies for aggregation, landscape use and home-making in the Epipalaeolithic

9.30 am: Meg Conkey - On the Move, Making Tracks, but Marking and Making Place in Ice Age Europe

10 am: Caroline von Nicolai - Transalpine contacts during the Neolithic: an indicator for human mobility and migration?

10.30 am: Coffee break

11 am: Benjamin Porter - Assembling Jerusalem: Peoples, Things, and Culture in Motion

11.30 am: Jun Sunseri - Tactical Homescapes in Historical Archaeology: An equine biomechanical perspective

12 am: Discussion

12.30 am: Lunch break

Final discussion

2 pm to open end